Old Business

Ordinance for Historic Preservation: At the last meeting there was discussion, as reported in the minutes, of the proposals to be included in an ordinance to be recommended to City Council. President Hutcheson will put these ideas together into a form ready to present to attorneys who will draft an ordinance for consideration by the Council. The material will be discussed at the April meeting before it goes to the attorneys.

List of Names of People to be Contacted for Historical Data: In preparation for the history book to be available at the Sheridan Celebrates day in September, the list was made of persons who will be asked to write their recollections of earlier days in Sheridan. These are: Juanita Sitler, Mrs. Yarborough, Richard Lynch, Peggy McDonald, Barbara Mitoff, Dick and Hazel Shriver, Mrs. Haevaert, and June Lindstrom. President Hutcheson will prepare a letter to these people requesting a written history and outlining some types of items to include.

New Business

The President commented on the recent death of Robert Sitler, who had been a leader and a public official in Sheridan for many years and was also active in the organization of the present Sheridan Historical Society. The President will send a card from the Historical Society to Mr. Sitler's family.

Mr. Svigel and the Log Cabins: Cliff Mueller will work with Mr. Svigel to talk about what can be done to find a place to move the log cabins, before the highway widening requires the building's demolition. Before any action can be taken, the Board will have to look at costs and budgets for rental or taxes on a possible location, insurance, fencing, utilities and other expenses.

Adjournment The meeting was adjourned at 8:35 p.m.

Earl McCoy, Secretary
